THE MOVIES

The Sundowners

"The Sundowners" is a story of Australia and a family of itinerant, hard-living sheep drovers. Filmed on-location in the "outback" of Australia, the movie tells of the families' struggle on this rugged land with honesty and realism, but with great human dignity as well. Stars Robert Mitchem and Deborah Kerr. No Admission Charge.

April 6, 8:00 p.m., Auditorium

The American Serial

"The American Serial" includes four separate films which are Buck Rogers; Flash Gordon; Dick Tracy, America's No. 1 crime expert; and The Legend of the Lone Ranger. Each chapter is approximately 25 minutes in length. No Admission Charge.

April 13, 8:00 p.m., Auditorium

My Sister Eileen

"My Sister Eileen" revolves around two sisters from Ohio who go to New York to seek careers, Eileen as a dancer, Ruth as a writer. It is a musical comedy staged with songs and dances to delight the audience. No Admission Charge.

April 27, 8:00 p.m., Campus Center

Seven Surprises

"Seven Surprises" is a compilation of seven award winning short subjects by Norman McLaren and other film-makers of the National Film Board of Canada. The film combines color and black-and-white, animation and live action, comedy and drama, fantasy and documentary. No Admission Charge.

May 7, 8:00 p.m., Auditorium

World Without Sun

"World Without Sun" is a documentary film about the world beneath the surface of the sea and the manner in which seven intrepid oceanauts lived and worked there for a month without once coming to the surface. No Admission Charge.

May 18, 8:00 p.m., Auditorium
